Reinhard Schmid is a German visual artist with a continuous artistic practice spanning nearly four decades. Since the mid 1980s, he has developed a distinctive body of work rooted in craftsmanship, symbolism, and abundance.

Trained in reverse glass painting by his father, the artist Rudolf Schmid, and influenced by classical techniques, Schmid refined a demanding working process combining pencil drawing, watercolor, and painterly methods behind glass. For almost twenty years, his practice has also included oil painting on canvas using old-master inspired layered techniques.

In the early 1990s, Schmid worked with Jaro Art Galleries on Madison Avenue in New York and participated in the New York Art Expo. From 1991 to 2001, he maintained a residence in Chicago, a formative period for his artistic development.

From 1993 to 2013, he curated and developed the Gewölbe der Geheimnisse (Vault of Secrets) in Viechtach, Germany, including a monumental tarot project on glass.

Since 2018, Schmid has been active in digital and NFT-based art, extending his established visual language into contemporary formats.

Techniques & Media

Reverse glass painting with artist-made, unique frames as an integral part of the artwork

Oil painting on canvas using an old-master inspired layered technique

Mixed media
